Vehicle Description

It's not every day such a lovely example of an Evolution IX in this condition, with so much history comes along. While unfortunately the majority of these cars have been subject to corrosion and neglect over time, there still are some superb examples out there and this is one of those cars.

The mountain of paperwork accompanying this car's journey through life stands almost an inch high off the desk! Every previous MOT is present, service invoices and health checks from Mitsubishi and finally invoices for the upgrades and replacement parts throughout its life. Within the portfolio there is even an original FQ-360 brochure, supplied by the Mitsubishi dealer in 2006, when the FQ range was released to the public at a cost of £35,000.

The biggest reward of evo ownership, aside from the way they look parked in your garage, is the way they tame the open road. We are
