Vehicle Description

This MG RV8 was first registered in Japan in May 1994 (M Reg). Absolutely stunning in Woodcote Green with cream leather and a black hood. Just 16,000 miles from new and mint....

The MG RV8 was a hugely important step in the 1990's rebirth of MG Cars after more than a decade of only producing saloons and hatchbacks. Since Abingdon's closure in 1980, MG had been reserved for the Metro, Maestro and Montego and, although these cars were worthy, what enthusiasts really wanted was a new MG roadster.

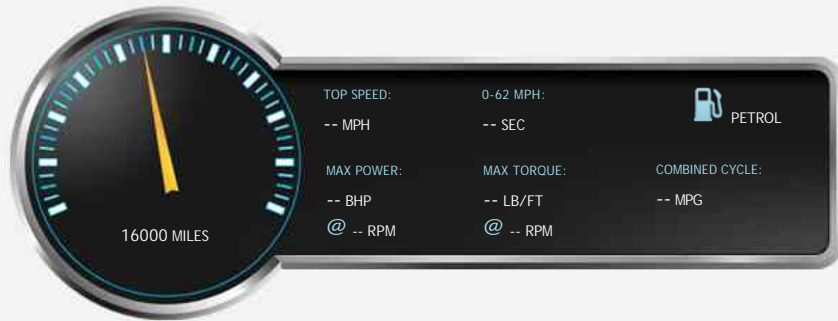

In creating the RV8, Rover very cleverly used a combination of off-the-shelf parts, such as the Range Rover's V8 engine and British Motor Heritage MGB bodyshell. So, in this re-interpretation of the MGB, the
