Vehicle Description

First registered in August 1986, (D Reg) this Series 3 Spider is one of the Bell and Colvill (of East Horsley) right hand drive conversions introduced by them in the mid '80s when they realised that LHD-only had become a gating factor to sales and not everyone's Cappuccino.

The most recent keeper has been custodian since August 2012, the odometer still only reading 113,000 km, (70,000 miles).

Finished in Silver with contrasting Black leather interior with Red contrast stitching; this super little Alfa still retains all its Italian flair. Sitting on its period-correct multi-hole alloy wheels. The history file reveals that the car was repainted in 1993 and re-trimmed in 2003. More recently, a clutch
